

In a society that seems non stop, the opportunity to enjoy a quite evening with my family without the hassle of un-solicited sales calls, is something I can now enjoy. Because our state has given the citizens (who overwhelmingly supported and asked for the “no call” list initiative) Please do not allow the business interests of others to affect my right to privacy.